Featuring Dr. John C. Green, director emeritus of the Ray C. Bliss Institute of Applied Politics, discussing his latest book "Secular Surge" about the rise of secularism in American politics.

Co-sponsored by The University of Akron's Office of Inclusion and Equity and the Greater Akron Civility Center.

"SECULAR SURGE" DESCRIPTION: American society is rapidly secularizing—a radical departure from its historically high level of religiosity—and politics is a big part of the reason. Just as, forty years ago, the Religious Right arose as a new political movement, today secularism is gaining traction as a distinct and politically energized identity. This book examines the political causes and political consequences of this secular surge, drawing on a wealth of original data.
