

University of Akron School of Law
International Student ESL Exam Accommodation Policy & Request Form

Policy:

- International Students for whom English is a second language may receive up to 50% additional time on School of Law exams and may also request exam usage of a native language translation dictionary.
- Students should request additional time and or use of dictionaries for both midterms and finals through the Office of Student Services International Student Exam Accommodation Request Form.
- All Accommodation Request Forms must be submitted at least two weeks before an examination and require approval from the Office of Student Services and the course professor. Accommodation of each type is discretionary only.
- Translation dictionaries are not provided by the Office of Student Services. The dictionary may not contain additional writing.
- The School of Law faculty strongly encourages international students for whom English is a second language to gradually take law school exams without any additional time in preparation for the bar examination.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact:
Asst. Director Misty Franklin at misty@uakron.edu
