Bar & Required Full-Time Track – Planning Guide
(Effective Fall 2014 Entering Class)

NOTE: Although it may be possible for students to enroll only during evening OR only during daytime hours, it is likely that some of these classes will need to be taken in a combination of day/evening hours in order to avoid scheduling conflicts. This is especially true beginning in the spring semester of the 2nd year. In the event a student is only available to attend during day or evening hours and a schedule conflict arose, the conflicting course would need to be taken when next offered which may be one year later.

* In order to enhance prospects for academic success, some first year students will take a special academic skills course, Contracts Law Lab (CLL), in the spring semester instead of Criminal Law. Students with an accumulative law GPA of 2.60 and lower at the end of the first semester will be required to take CLL. Absent extenuating circumstances, all CLL students will be required to take Criminal Law during the spring semester of their second year.

 A student with an accumulative law grade point average of 2.60 or below at the end of the first year of law studies or any subsequent term will be subject to specific course restriction, until an accumulative law GPA of 3.00 or higher is achieved. For further information on these course restrictions please review the “Course Restrictions Based on Law Grade Point Average” located in the Law Student Handbook: <http://www.uakron.edu/law/students/student-services/student-handbook.dot>.

 Constitutional Law II, Legal Drafting and Advanced Legal Research can be taken any time before graduation.
