General Discussion

- Shawn Stevens provided an update that he participated in a walk through with the group from Nutrition and that the Shrank Hall South space request has been withdrawn for now.

Stephen Myers report:

- The kickoff meeting to renovate the McClain Gallery was held on May 18. Funds to renovate were received from the current capital bill.
- The Computer Center air handler construction will begin in June with unit arriving in July for installation.
- Bid openings will be held on May 25 for the EJ concrete repairs on the lower level.
- The kickoff meeting was held on May 18 for the fire alarm upgrade in Bierce, Olsen Research, CBA building. Contracts are ready for the design phase.
- The JAR air handlers bid opening is May 11.
- Ayer/Crouse renovation update – moving trucks are there, most departments are moved out and into Central Hower. Labs still need to be set up and fencing will be installed in June around the construction area.
- Phase 1 of camera surveillance project is finished, working on design of the 2nd phase.
- Infrastructure improvements of electrical update – completing test and engineering will issue a proposal for the next phase of the project, which will take place in the next biennium. Working on repairs in the Polsky deck over the summer.
- Whitby Hall air handler replacement is completed.
- Advertising for a new gas contract will occur in the next few weeks.
- Insurance proceeds have been received for the Ballet Center. It will go out to bid for public purchase soon.
- Finishing off the punch list for the 1st phase of the indoor air quality improvement project. The 2nd phase will include such buildings as Roadway, Computer Center, Polymer Engineering Academic Center, Engineering Research Center, Folk Hall, Buckingham, EJ Thomas Hall, Clinic for Individual & Family Counseling and some other larger units in residence halls.
- Cares Funds will provide funding to replace some dampers on air handler units that will make them more efficient and will allow better control over them.
- Some Cares Funds will help to upgrade 10-15 technology enhanced classrooms to have the ability for distance learning.
